Alan will share with us how can we tap into more of the true underlining reality of life and expand on the understanding of who and what we are? This evening’s presentation on Codes of Reality looks at the basic structures of reality so we can change our perspective to create a larger worldview. In order to do this we must look at the power of perception, which includes language, our mind and our basic assumptions. This lecture and power point will give us the keys to the seeing beyond what we know or even imagined. You will, as a result of this evening, come to understand the ultimate realization of yourselves as divine incarnations capable of knowing and having it all.
