Friday October 9, 2015 8:00PM Lecture: Quantum Energetics Structured Therapy* with Elizabeth Tomboulion who was certified by the Association for the Advancement of Energy Medicine in 2006 a practitioner of Cranio Sacral Therapy and a Sound Energy Healer. Elizabeth will share her unique knowledge and hands on experience of this most systematic method of energy healing available, QEST uses kinesiology to locate conditions that cause pain and disease in the physical. Working with what is like a spiderman suit of energy, causes (disruptions) are found, addressed, and programmed to catalyze healing from fractures, dislocations, digestive issues, anxiety, grief, injuries, and myriad other conditions that cause pain, illness and distress. This results in clearing the energy body to the template of wellness. Based on the following testimonial that Elizabeth received from one of her many clients which reads as follows: "I don't know what you did, but my toe that was black before was completely healed and pink the next day -J.G. Bassist", says we are in for quite an interesting and exciting night! Don't miss this one!!
